THE DOER.

He Keeps the Commandments of God Forever and Ever.

Correspondence Telegram.
"But ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves."

"For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was."

"But whose looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continued therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed." Jas. 1:22-25.

James was, pre-eminently, the writer of a gospel of common sense. It is impossible to read his epistle of five chapters and not receive benefit if it be read with desire. In his day, as in this, there are more fools deceiving themselves than are making others believe in them. There are thousands of hearers, but few doers. "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." I know a man, exceedingly devout, leads in public prayer, dares to stand as a religious teacher on Sundays, and strange to say the church permits him to do so, when there is not a merchant in the town who will trust him for a pound of sugar. He has no respect for his word; but still he says, "Lord, Lord." And just such men are the characters who keep out of the church others who would, in all probability, be doers, and not hearers only. I wouldn't give a snap for any religion that does not make the possessor of it honest and worthy the confidence of his fellow man. There are hearers of various kinds. The injudicious, not capable of forming an opinion as to whether what he hears is the truth or not; the inattentive, hearing but not caring for what he hears; the censorious, whose one desire is to pick flaws and argue the matter showing up the preacher as a man not understanding his business; the unapprehensive, who tells you in word and manner that the law, or the penalty for its violation, doesn't scare him; an lastly, as the colored preacher remarks, is the generous hearer.
He hears, but in his great generosity, gives it all away to his neighbors.
The preacher's onslaught on sin and wickedness never hits him. He sits serenely in his pew, smiles complacently, and thinks, well, brother pastor is nailing Miss Feather's and my neighbor Brown today. The church is full of the generous hearers who realize that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

What is the hearer only like? "He is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass. For he beholdeth himself, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was." This is a perfect description. Now it is generally understood that women are often looking at themselves in the mirror. But I believe not more so than men. The latter are just about as vain.
After all, it would be difficult for one to give a perfect description of himself, especially his features. He thinks pretty well of his face, it may be; but he is sure of its features in detail.
This is the picture of the hearer only—forgetful. He doesn't go to church expecting to be filled and he returned home empty as he came. He can't remember the text, neither the outline of the sermon. But the forgetful women hearers remember exactly how Miss Feather's was dressed.

The doer blessed in his deed. "Looketh into the perfect law of liberty." The doer is one who keeps the commandments of God forever and ever.
And in keeping of the law, is found a great reward. In always looking into this law, and continuing therein, a change in life and character is manifested. "But we all with open face beholding in a glass, the glory of the Lord, as in a mirror, and as we behold, we change into the same image from glory to glory." The change is inevitable. It is not of ourselves. For the Ethiopian cannot change his skin nor a leopard his spots. But he who looks into the law and keeps it, being a doer of the word or work, is changed.

"This man shall be blessed in his deed," or doing, a better word than deed. He is not a forgetful hearer.
The doer of the word is one who claims no other will than God's will.
His meat is to do the work that he has the capability to perform. With him religion is not vain. It is meat to eat, water to drink, and clothes to put on.
He pins himself down to the law. Let his light so shine that men seeing his good works glorify God. His example is an object lesson of divine grace, showing what God will do for him when he puts himself without reserve in His hand. Whatever he does, will prosper. He shall be as a tree planted by the rivers of water. His life is one of fruit-bearing. His doing is blessed. What encouragement is held out to the doers of the word.
Without going into any discussion or speculation as to what may be the nature of the future life, it is in evidence, without doubt, that godliness, doing is always profitable. Yes, how happy am I this morning in contemplating the fact that just so long as I keep hold of and live on the promises of God, He will stick to me. He makes this promise to all and he cannot afford and will not go back on his word.
I hold Him in the bond of His own veracity. And if you find yourself out of tune with the world, and the lot in which you stand, mark it down, that you are not a doer of the word. And if you would be blessed in your doing you must comply with the terms of the divine plan. "Thine all there is of it."
And if this is not the truth, then, there is no truth.

A HIGHLY DRAMATIC SCENE

Occurs During the Sitting of the Court Martial.

BREEZE FROM THE PHILIPPINES

Tells of an Ambuscade and the Killing of Three Men of the Twenty-third Regiment.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Rennes, August 26.—Bertillon again testified. Some deficiencies in his demonstrations were pointed out in the cross examination. A highly dramatic scene occurred when Captain Freystazzer, a member of the first court martial, testified that all the documents of the secret dossier were read. This contradicted Colonel Maurel. Labori immediately demanded that Freystazzer confront Maurel.
The former mounted the stage. He presented a miserable, abject appearance, with his shifty eyes and hang-dog look. When asked to explain, he said: "I said I read one document. I did not say only one document was read. I said I called out an outburst of history, but I looked upon as an infamous confession by the audience. The audience then listened spellbound as Freystazzer told exactly what documents of the dossier were read and how Colonel Maurel not only read these documents but commented on them."

THREE AMERICANS KILLED.
Manila, August 26.—Four men of the Twenty-third regiment stationed at Cebu were ambushed by natives stationed in the hills. Three Americans were killed, the fourth escaping. Details are lacking.

AS TO SANITATION.
There is Much Complaint About the City's Condition.

Some time ago there was a new sanitary ordinance passed by the board of aldermen that had for its aim the improvement of the methods of removing the city of garbage and refuse matter. Its provisions are only being partially carried out, and there is much complaint about the filthy condition of some part of the city. The ordinance provides that the city may run scavenger wagons and that under the direction of the sanitary committee the sanitary officer may proceed to relieve any man's premises of all such matter as will produce disease.

The writer of this urged the importance of carrying out all the provisions of this ordinance early in the season, but as it was likely to cost a little to start it, there has been nothing done.
The sanitary officer is handicapped under the existing arrangements. The work is so badly scattered that he cannot keep up with it. The best way in sight is to carry into force and effect the provisions of the new sanitary ordinance. But something must be done at once. Such negligence is little short of criminal. There is much complaint, and a great deal of sickness is reported in some sections.

Every policeman on the force should be required to do sanitary work a few days, report every place that is the least filthy and have warrants issued and executed on all who refuse to at-once comply with health regulations.
This is a far more important matter than the smallpox business and vaccination campaign that was inaugurated here in March. It means that we must face and grapple with a condition, a fact, instead of going into tantrums over a scarecrow.

DECISIVE ACTION

To Be Taken Against the Flassed Negroes.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Darling, Ga., August 26.—In a conference at midnight, composed of the sheriff, militia officers and citizens, it was decided to take decisive action against the negroes who are massed and armed at Peligal's swamp, twelve miles from the city.

In response to the request of the sheriff, Col. Lawton, of Savannah, wired that his militia is ready.
Liberty county troops will start from Hinesville for Darling on a special train this morning, and militia will follow later. It is the purpose of the militia to surround the swamp and relieve the blacks of their arms and arrest them.

There was a marriage in our city last night. To some it was a surprise to others it was not. The contracting parties were Miss Nellie C. Lindsay, of this city, and Charles W.
Watkins, of Winston. Rev. J. R.
Scruggs, of the M. E. Church, was the officiating minister. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock in the parlor of the B. Bellevue hotel. The immediate family and a few invited guests of the bride were present. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins left on the 9:30 train to spend their honeymoon in the

THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

Reply to Captain Bouldin by Chairman McAllister.

Editor Evening Telegram:—I do not propose to enter into any argument on the subject thrust upon the public in Mr. Bouldin's card which appeared in your columns yesterday; but I wish to submit a few cold, undeniable facts, and if they do not vindicate the disciplinary board in this matter we ask for no vindication.

Mr. Bouldin came to my office on Monday afternoon, July 31, the day before gala week opened, and asked that the disciplinary board be called together that night to consider a demand that his salary be increased from $100 to $125. Without any discussion I refused to call a special meeting for this purpose and told him that the matter would be taken up at the regular monthly meeting which would be held in the next few days.
He stated that he would remain until the end of the week, but that he would resign as manager at that time unless we concluded to pay the $125 as demanded. This statement was repeated by Mr. Bouldin at least two other members of the board. On Friday night, just four days later, the board met and I courteously invited him to be present. In response he said that he supposed the members of the board had made up their minds.
I asserted that I thought they had.

There was no contract at any time to pay Mr. Bouldin $125 per month, nor was there at any time any obligation on the part of the board to increase his salary. He will admit this.
Here is the whole case. Mr. Bouldin placed his conditional resignation in the hands of the board, and the board accepted it.

The refusal by the board to pay $125 per month was vindicated by the fact that as soon as Mr. Bouldin's resignation was made known a number of competent men applied for the place at the salary of $100 per month.
This is the second time within the last fortnight that the disciplinary board has been dragged before the public and accused. In the one instance because the board accepted the resignation of the manager, in the other because the board refused to promote a clerk.

We are met on every side by such annoyances as the above and by the persecutions of a disappointed minority; but we have been appointed as officers of the law to carry into effect a statute of the commonwealth, and there is nothing that can turn us from the task. I have cited a few facts which none will deny and am content to rest our case upon their plain statements.

A. W. McAllister.

Meeting at the Friends' Church.

Correspondence Telegram.

The meeting at the Friends' church last night was the best in the series.
The sermon was an exposition of the doctrine of biblical holiness. There were many testimonies at the close of the meeting. There will be three services tomorrow. Evangelist Hodgins invites all to come and bring their bibles that they may read and see for themselves.

Thacker & Brookmann still have in stock several dozen pairs infants and small children's tan and black sandals which they don't want to carry over and will sell at cost or less.

JUDGE RILEY OF VIRGINIA

Again a Consecrated Republican Ready for Ple.

NORTH CAROLINA REPUBLICANS

Looking for a Leader to Lead Them Into the Jaws of Defeat—The "Honor" Goes a-Begging.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 26.—Judge William Riley, of Virginia, former United States Consul, who is probably as well known to the people of Virginia as any other politician in the state, has been "blown" into Washington again and is stopping at Willard's Hotel.
A few months ago when the judge was sorely disappointed in his aspirations to get a United States Consulship from the present administration, or at least accept of the common report, he said that he had things about the present administration which he himself was partly responsible for. The judge, however, is a strong, loyal, dyed-in-the-wool Republican, could not rest easy very long outside the breast-works, and is now ready as a true, patriotic Virginian, to take his accustomed place in the "ranks." In conversation at Willard's Hotel where he is stopping, the "eminent jurist" from Virginia predicted the triumph of the party of his party in the national election next year, saying that the election of Mr. McKinley over Hon.
W. J. Bryan, will be accomplished much earlier in 1900 than it was in 1896.

In fact, according to his prognostications, the Nebraska bill hardly believed even in the "have run" class. But then, it is necessary to make some allowances for Judge Riley's natural enthusiasm. He says that he knows that this glorious republican cause better under republican administrations, than under democratic domination, so that settles it, at least in his own mind.
Judge Riley has also an "idea" in regard to the Virginia senatorial contest, this is now being conducted in true democratic orthodox style. In the Old Dominion. He says before the campaign is many weeks older Governor Tyler will be sorry he ever entered the race for Senator, as Thomas Martin will win so easily he will never realize he had an opponent. The Judge says as his republicanism is as "solid as the eternal hills" he has no right to meddle in the contentions of the Virginia democracy, but that if he were a democrat, he would advise Governor Tyler to renounce the forlorn hope that will consign him to perpetual political oblivion.

North Carolina Republicans are beginning to give their attentions to the question as to who will lead them into the jaws of defeat in the state. It is said among North Carolina republicans and democrats alike coming to Washington that there will not be much of a contest for the Governorship, as there are very few republicans who will be willing to make an almost certain losing campaign. It is said that whoever is nominated by the party for Governor will have the "honor" forced upon him.
The report that Mr. Frank Hume might vote for Governor Tyler for the United States senate is denounced as untrue by his friends. Mr. Hume has been a Martin man from the start of the senatorial campaign and will vote for Martin in the Legislature. His friends say that if he were the only democrat in the next general assembly, his vote would be given to the senator, as he regards the senator as fairly entitled to a reelection, on account of his past services in the United States senate.

It is said here that the predictions of the Martin men have been made very correctly, and that the senator is likely to have more votes, rather than less number, of those now claimed for him. Many of those included in the doubtful list, are said to be Martin men.
Rev. J. E. Thacker, of Alexandria, has returned to his home, from an extended vacation, which he spent in the mountain region of North Carolina.
He will occupy his pulpit next Sunday morning.

At the postoffice department, it is the opinion that the postoffice at Peck, Florida, will be discontinued, as a result of the mobbing of the deputy postmaster there. The office is a small one, and it is said hardly pays the government anyway.

Railroad service in North Carolina from Charlotte to Currieville, Carthage & Western Railroad, 11.55 miles, will be discontinued from September 15th, 1899.
Special service has been established in Virginia at Plynna, Moore county, from railroad station, three miles, to take effect August 26th.
Wiley M. Wyatt has been commissioned postmaster at Hilda, North Carolina.

B. E. Haines, of Concord, North Carolina, is in the city for a few days, stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RECEPTION.

A Memorable Social Affair at Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Glascock's.

The Epworth League of Centenary church tendered a reception to the young people of the church, together with a few friends of the League members, last evening. The delightful event transpired at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Glascock, on Asheboro street, and, with Miss Ruby, their charming daughter, as hostess, the evening was made one of rare delight for all who had been so fortunate as to receive and respond to an invitation.

From 9:30 to 10:15 o'clock the fifty or more guests, who were assembled on the porch and in the parlor labored over the answers in the interesting game, "Familiar Authors." When this was finished a few of the talented young ladies pleased the guests with a number of vocal and instrumental musical selections. At 11 o'clock seasonable refreshments were served, at ables on the lawn, and at 11:45 o'clock the happy young people, with a rare degree of reluctance, departed, leaving many appreciative remarks for their always entertaining hostess.

PULL UP, NOT DOWN.

A local contemporary suggests that it is about time to call a halt in the erection of dwellings and store buildings in Greensboro, and says there are enough vacant houses here now. It is rather strange that as some men try to build up a town others will try to pull it down. The man who wrote the item referred to does not want to pull the city down; that is not his object, but still that is the only effect such comment can have.

When the barrooms were knocked out, many people wagged their heads and said: "Now for empty store houses." We all expected to see the barroom stands empty for a time, but they are filling up about as fast as they are vacated. The Gorrell stand, corner of Depot and South Elm streets, has been utilized in the enlargement of a wholesale business. The bar next to Odell's has been succeeded by an enlargement of Odell's plumbing business. The Schoffner stand is occupied by the dispensary. The West stand is occupied by the auction sales of pawnbroker's goods. All the others, we believe, with one exception, are still retained by the bar men, and we understand the one mentioned as an exception has been rented.

Don't try to pull down the good work. Such expressions are calculated to do no city great injustice where the facts are not known. Let the city grow. Let everybody who wants to do so build houses. Cities make a large city without them. Instead of trying to throw cold water on such operations let everybody encourage them and try to induce manufacturing enterprises to locate here that will justify all the building that is being, or will be done.

Let the workmen proceed.

It is refreshing, after a week of reading about the Dreyfus trial, the Philippine situation, strikes, murders, lynchings, and other distressing and harrowing things, to pick up a newspaper and read such an article as that found in this paper today from the pen of Rev. J. C. Troy. His letters are always rich food and well seasoned.

Anybody can write an ad. But genius is required to write an ad that will perform its real mission. We will venture the remark that Greensboro business men as a whole are as adept in this art as any people, as will appear from a perusal of the advertisements appearing in the Telegram daily. And we will venture further to state that we have a gentleman in our city whose superior, as a skillful writer of ads cannot be produced in North Carolina. We refer to Mr. Will Rees, of the sterling firm of Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees, who writes the ads of the firm. They are always bright, sparkling with the most catchy phrases, and exactly to the point. Superfluous details are always omitted, and from a literary as well as a business view, they are always a success. We feel sure that Mr. Rees could give old man Geo. P. Rowell some ideas about the art.

The Telegram has invited Mr. J. W. Tillinghast, of the Tillinghast School of Music, to conduct a department one day in each week to be devoted exclusively to the advancement of musical interests in this city. He has accepted the invitation and will probably introduce the subject in next Monday's paper. We believe this department will be of vast interest and value to those who are interested in the improvement of both vocal and instrumental music.

A Delightful Evening.

Reported for The Telegram. Misses Genevieve and Lois Jennings entertained a party of their friends at a lawn party, Thursday evening from 8:30 to 12 o'clock, at their residence on Chestnut street. In honor of their guests, Misses Burton and Perkins, of Stuart, and the Misses Jennings and Mr. B. S. Elyson, of Danville. The evening was pleasantly spent in social games, music, matching quotations, etc.

Dr. Moxon, of England, added greatly to the pleasure of the evening by his music and recitations. He has a voice of rare culture. Refreshments were served late in the evening, and as the hour of midnight approached the guests reluctantly dispersed, voting the evening quite a success.

Is It Right for an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this remedy in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack such suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

Buckley's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, better, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

One difference between a man and a trunk is that the latter can be strapped without being "broke."

Mr. A. Saunders, writing from Coconut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Money is probably spoken of as "cold cash" because it gives so many people a chill to part with it.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon this as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion."—James M. Thomas, M. D., in American Journal of Health, N. Y., Howard Gardner.

"Hello!" exclaimed the fish. "Here to stay?" "No," replied the worm; "I just dropped in for a bite."

Hamilton Clarke, of Chauncy, Ga., says he suffered with itching piles twenty years before trying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, two boxes of which completely cured him. Beware of worthless and dangerous counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

Nell—"Cholly never thinks of doing a stroke of work, and his parents think the world of him." Beware of worthless and dangerous counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chills, Malaria and Quinine. It is a safe iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price 25c.

Housekeeper—"Poor fellow, you want something to do, don't you?" "Yes," replied the man. "I would like to be a housekeeper (suspiciously)." "Mutton," replied the lady.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. C. E. Holton will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Irritating stings, bites, scratches, wounds and cuts soothed and healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve—a sure and safe application for tortured flesh. Beware of counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

"Our baby was sick for a month with severe cough and catarrhal fever. Although we tried many remedies she kept getting worse until we used One Minute Cough Cure—it relieved at once and cured her in a few days."—B. L. Nance, Prin. High School, Bluffdale, Texas. Howard Gardner.

Hoax—"D'Auber's latest picture, 'The Storm-tossed Tea,' is said to be very realistic." Hoax—"Yes; I heard quite a number of his friends say it made them sick."

The early apple catches the worm.

It frequently happens that the fellow who tries to corner wool gets worsted.

An Enterprising Druggist.

There are a few men more wide awake and enterprising than C. E. Holton, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country. It cures every ailment of the throat, chest and lungs. Call at the above drug store and get a trial bottle free—a regular size for 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

All weak places in your system effectually closed against disease by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cleanse the bowels, promptly cure chronic constipation, regulate the liver, and fill you with new life and vigor. Small, pleasant, sure; never gripe. Howard Gardner.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve
Cures Piles, Scalds, Burns

It isn't the bodily sickness that hurts a man. He could stand that fairly well if his mind were easy. But Americans are busy. They have work to do—plans to make—schemes to execute. They are "plungers." They live up their incomes as soon as they receive them or re-invest them with the idea of increase. They cannot afford to be sick. Sickness is a calamity—a financial calamity as well as a physical one. So the sick man worries, and the more he worries, the sicker he grows.

Worry is a good thing at the right time. The minute you feel a symptom of sickness—worry about it—do something about it—cure yourself. When you begin to feel run-down—when a twinge of rheumatism tells you plainly that your blood is impaired—when you are losing flesh and vitality, go to the nearest drug store and get a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the greatest blood purifier and tissue builder on earth. It cures rheumatism and all other blood diseases by curing the cause. It purifies the blood and puts the blood making organs into good, healthy, working order. It tones up the stomach, stirs up the liver, helps the kidneys in their work and puts suffering nerves at rest. It contains no whisky, alcohol, opium or other dangerous drugs and does not create a craving for stimulants or narcotics.

James R. Crumpton, Esq., of Sharpsburg, Washington Co., Md., writes: "I was in business in Baltimore, and had rheumatism for three months, couldn't walk at all. I tried the best doctors I could get but they did me no good. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured me sound. I came home to Sharpsburg and there were three cases of different diseases. I advised the patients to use Dr. Pierce's medicine, which they did, and all were cured. I have sold over one hundred dollars' worth of your medicine by telling people how it cured me. You can write to our drug store, Mr. G. F. Smith, in our town and he will tell you what I did for you in regard to selling and advertising your great remedies."

Anarchy in Luzon.

London, August 25.—A Laban correspondent cables that reliable news has been received direct from Manila to the effect that an indescribable state of anarchy prevails on the island of Luzon. The Americans occupy a radius of fifteen miles around Manila, nine miles around Iloilo, and a small radius around Cebu. The remainder of the country is in the hands of the Filipinos. It is reported that the Filipinos have murdered the crew of the steamer Saturnus.

Meant No Disrespect.

London, August 25.—The release of the German officer who threw the letter into the queen's carriage was due to the direct intervention of the queen. She was moved by the appeal of the letter which mentioned the reopening of a position the officer had lost in this country. The German protested that he meant no disrespect, that was the custom on the continent to throw letters into the royal carriage.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 28.
I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWNS.

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles." Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

Miss Lizzie Crocker will resume her class of music September 4th. Pupils will please call at her residence, 328 East Lee street, to arrange hours.

There are cravats and cravats, but you find in a lifetime but one Rufus Waterhouse line. The beauty and harmony blended into the combination of colors and exquisite silks make it good for the eye to feast upon. Harry Donnell has been lending his aid in the arrangement of the south window at Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees', and if it is a pretty tie you are looking for you may stop at 300 South Elm. The Rufus Waterhouse line of cravats can't be beat, and the above firm are the exclusive handlers in this city.

A Laughable Experience.

A bald headed gentleman from a neighboring city who spent last night in the city, came down from his room this morning and said the mosquitoes dragged him off the bed and started out with him, but that about half way from the bed to the door a buckle on his clothing hung to a carpet tack and they couldn't carry him any further. He further said that when he awoke he was slightly bewildered, didn't remember where he was, and rubbing his hand over his bald head, thought it was his cook's washboard.

JOHN B. WRIGHT, Music House,

HE HASN'T GONE.

The Pantry Thief Had Only Temporarily Ceased Operations.

And again the pantry thief appears. Last night this professional paid a visit to the residence of C. C. Townsend, on McGhee street, and silently took unto himself provisions to last for a few days, and not being entirely loaded, he also carried away a pair of curtains. The edibles, upon which he will subsist for the next few days are, one ham, two chickens, one-half sack of flour, a small piece of steak, two dozen eggs and one pound of butter. He also borrowed a two-gallon tin bucket in which he probably carried some of the smaller articles.

The police are looking for him, but this pantry thief is the most mysterious individual whom the Greensboro police have had occasion to look for in a long time and the policeman who does happen to catch him will win undying fame.
